

BALLOTPEDIA EXPEDITIONS

JUDICIAL DEFERENCE

Go Deeper: The Constitutional Case for Chevron Deference by Jonathan R. Siegel

After reading “Go Deeper: The Constitutional Case for Chevron Deference” by Jonathan R. Siegel, consider the following questions:

- Do you think deference is constitutional or not? If so, why? If not, why not?
- Article III of the Constitution vests judicial power in the courts; does that prohibit courts from deferring to agency interpretations of statutes? What do you think about the argument that deference violates due process because it requires judges to “exercise systematically biased judgment in favor of the government”?
- How does deference relate to the nondelegation doctrine?
- Is deference a violation of the separation of powers?